The RIPE NCC Academy
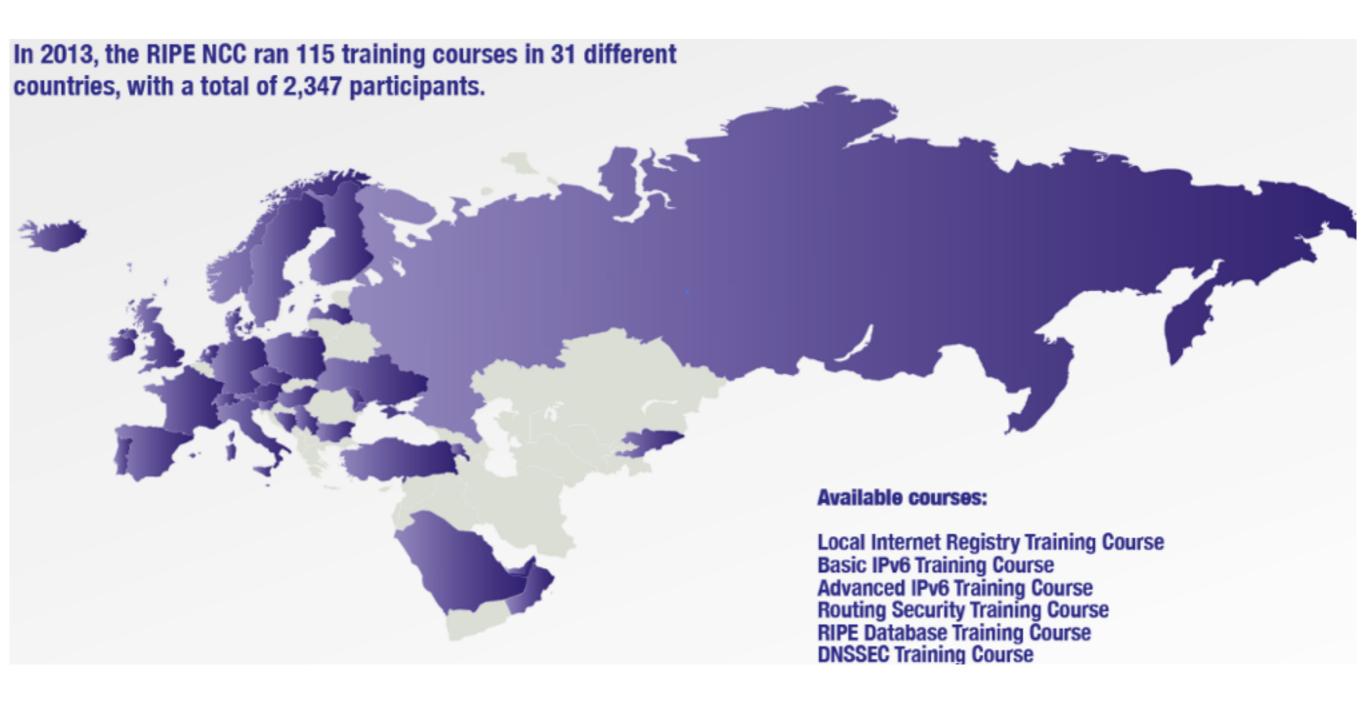

An Integrated Learning Solution

Rumy Spratley-Kanis

Current Training Activities

- Face-to-face training courses

- Presentations, tutorials, workshops on demand

- Weekly Webinars

- E-Learning Centre

In 2013, the RIPE NCC ran 115 training courses in 31 different countries, with a total of 2,347 participants.

Available courses:

Local Internet Registry Training Course
Basic IPv6 Training Course
Advanced IPv6 Training Course
Routing Security Training Course
RIPE Database Training Course
DNSSEC Training Course

- More training courses in more locations

- More technical hands-on courses

- Expand on e-learning and documentation

- Online learning should not replace face to face

- Provide certificate of competence following training

- Webinars very popular

- Number of locations and participants

- Travel se

- No time

- Platform for learning and sharing best current practices and experiences

- Online interactive courses

- Flexibility in time and place

- Certify knowledge

- Pedagogical model of the webinars and the RIPE NCC Academy considered to be best practices in e-learning by e-solve project funded by the EU

- Launch more online courses in 2015

- Expand modules to various stakeholders

- Cooperate with the other RIRs

- Continue with Webinars

- Quality stamp for online learning

- Doesn't replace face to face!

Go play!

- Official launch on Monday, 10 November

- academy.ripe.net is live now!
  - (please don't break it, limited support this week :))

- Limited Edition RIPE NCC Academy Graduate T-Shirt for the first 100 students who earn a certificate!

Questions?